Learn ways to share your faith story

The Bible commands us to remember God's faithfulness by telling others what the Lord has done for us.

We will learn ways that you can share your story at an information session Saturday, April 7, from 10 to 11:30 in the Shelva Wilson Classroom at Double Springs.

Sharing your story or the stories of those who have gone before is easy and not time-consuming. You don't have to be a writer.

Facilitating the session will be Linda Cabiness, who has enjoyed helping others tell their stories for more than 30 years. If you have questions, call or text 704.434.9462 or email: writememories@gmail.com.

This is for all ages. Please bring a photo of a person or place that has special meaning for you; it can be an old photo or a current one.

"I will give thanks to the Lord with my whole heart; I will tell of all your wonderful deeds." Psalm 9:1

DSBC AT WORK THROUGH THE COOPERATIVE PROGRAM: “My heart’s desire and my prayer to God is for their salvation.” Romans 10:1

Today we want to pray for one of our North American church planters who is starting a new church in Pembroke Pines, Florida.

Now, quick—who knows where Pembroke Pines is? Well, it’s not nearly as well known as Miami or Fort Lauderdale, but Pembroke Pines is right between these two better-known places and farther inland from the Atlantic. It’s a city of more than 150,000 people and has big problems with drugs, gangs, crime and alcohol abuse.

Omar Vargas, our church planter, knew about these kinds of needs in South Florida because this is where he grew up. He says people have many needs but they need the gospel of Christ most of all.

Starting a church is only one of Omar’s jobs. He also teaches the Bible at a Christian high school.

Today, let’s pray for Omar, his wife, Cindy, and their family as he stretches his hours and his commitment to start a new church. Our church is supporting him and his ministry through our Cooperative Program giving.
