The Resurrection

We often speak of the miracles of nature: the flowering of the trees in spring; the hatching of a bird from an egg; a rainbow after a storm, and so many more. The miracle which impresses me more than any other is the turning of a caterpillar into a butterfly. An ugly slug-like creature goes through metamorphosis and comes out as a colorful airborne creature of wonder and delight, what a miracle.

In a sense, God accomplished the reversal of that process in coming to earth as a human being. He went from the enthroned King of Kings, the Prince of Glory, to a carpenter's son with a standard of living well below the poverty line in today's world. But, the good news informs us that the resurrection undid that reversal and restored our Lord to His rightful place.

What does the resurrection of Jesus mean to you and me? Personally, the resurrection empowers me to live beyond the fear of death. Life is not forever, that's a certainty. The resurrection proves that death is also not forever. Death has lost its power over a Christian. We will all be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, when the dead in Christ shall be raised. Thank you God for Easter.

Forever in His debt, Bill

LADIES NIGHT OUT

MONDAY, MAY 7 6P.M.

DOUBLE SPRINGS BAPTIST CHURCH

Tickets $10 (includes dinner) available April 2 call 704.434.2258 by April 27; leave a message. Advance tickets only

Join us for an uplifting message by a woman who has encountered life-changing storms. Inspirational mom Jan Harrison wrote about the dark hours of a physical storm and a spiritual one in her first book, "Life After the Storm." Her second book, "Being a Woman Who Knows God by Name," examines the issue of trust when we feel that life has not turned out as we thought it would.

Learn ways to share your faith story

The Bible commands us to remember God's faithfulness by telling others what the Lord has done for us.

We will learn ways that you can share your story at an information session Saturday, April 7, from 10 to 11:30 in the Shelva Wilson Classroom at Double Springs.

Sharing your story or the stories of those who have gone before is easy and not time-consuming. You don't have to be a writer.

Facilitating the session will be Linda Cabiness, who has enjoyed helping others tell their stories for more than 30 years. If you have questions, call or text 704.434.9462 or email: writememories@gmail.com.

This is for all ages. Please bring a photo of a person or place that has special meaning for you; it can be an old photo or a current one.

"I will give thanks to the Lord with my whole heart; I will tell of all your wonderful deeds." Psalm 9:1
