The JOURNEY

I've come to the realization that the sermons I've been preaching of late have all concerned our personal journey with God. Trusting that God through His Holy Spirit is guiding the process of my decisions on what to preach, what is so important about our "journey" that God is shining His light on it? It seems that for so many years the emphasis placed on the "decision" has been overdone, not saying that the decision to follow Christ as Savior is not very, very crucial, but a "get them dipped and it's done" kind of evangelism is not even close to the Way of Christ as I understand it.

Without including intentional discipleship there is the danger of merely "inoculating" our children and others who go through our baptismal waters from getting saved. Salvation is both event and process, as can be seen by Jesus' three year walk with His disciples. When our Lord dealt with the "rich young ruler" He made it clear that salvation was more than just accepting the truth of who Jesus was and is. To the woman caught in adultery, "go and sin no more" was the final word.

Father God began the human race with Adam, then began again with the "last Adam," Jesus. (1 Corinthians 15:45) "The first man, Adam, became a living soul, the last Adam became a life-giving Spirit." His plan is to produce a race of people prepared for Heaven. It is a metamorphosis as drastic as that seen in nature as when a caterpillar becomes a butterfly, or an acorn becomes a mighty oak tree.

Join me on this journey of faith. Don't be satisfied with a dip in the water, but rather immerse yourself in the Spirit of God, and as you do, your life will become a witness to the power of God working in and through you.
