Scripture Memory Challenge 2018

Join me (Susan Turner) as I attempt to memorize 12 verses this year. I plan to select a verse on the fifteenth of each month and post it in a group setting via text. If you are interested please contact me at 704-473-2840 and say "I commit to scripture memory 2018" and put your name.

The rules are simple:

- 1) Select your verse (God usually will pick it for you, as you look for it, He points it out to you)
- 2) After I have posted my verse on the group text on the fifteenth then respond by posting yours. I try to be sensitive to timing by posting after 8:00am. Then all I ask is that you post yours before 8:30pm. (Some folks are up early and some are not due to work/family schedules.)
- 3) If you get behind, no shame. Just pick back up where you left off and post anytime during the month to catch up. God's timing is always perfect and many times the verse someone has posted is just what I needed to hear at that moment.

DSBC AT WORK THROUGH THE COOPERATIVE PROGRAM: “As the Father has sent Me, I am sending you.” John 20:21

Today we’re going to the Pacific Northwest, specifically Seattle, Washington, where our missionary, Ron Shepard, serves. We support Ron through our Cooperative Program giving.

About 4.7 million people live in the Seattle area, and they are some of our country’s most highly educated people. More people there hold library cards, percentagewise, than any other city in America. But, sadly, they are not reading the Bible. Ron knows because he has studied the city and helps train church planters in how to serve there. Seattle has fewer than 200 Southern Baptist churches. Many more are needed.

People there are friendly but bring up a spiritual topic and often they become skeptical, Ron says. You have to know people a while before they will listen to the gospel, and most will have to hear it presented seven times before they will respond.

Despite all this, Southern Baptists have started new churches all over the Seattle area. The work is slow, but it is happening. Ron thinks they will plant another 135 new churches over the next five years.

Today, let’s pray for Ron Shepard as he serves in Seattle. Let’s pray that hundreds of new churches can be started in the years ahead.
