Learn ways to share your faith story

The Bible commands us to remember God's faithfulness by telling others what the Lord has done for us.

We will learn ways that you can share your story at an information session Saturday, April 7, from 10 to 11:30 in the Shelva Wilson Classroom at Double Springs.

Sharing your story or the stories of those who have gone before is easy and not time-consuming. You don't have to be a writer.

Facilitating the session will be Linda Cabiness, who has enjoyed helping others tell their stories for more than 30 years. If you have questions, call or text 704.434.9462 or email: writememories@gmail.com.

This is for all ages. Please bring a photo of a person or place that has special meaning for you; it can be an old photo or a current one.

"I will give thanks to the Lord with my whole heart; I will tell of all your wonderful deeds." Psalm 9:1

DSBC AT WORK THROUGH THE COOPERATIVE PROGRAM:

“Teach me to do Your will, for You are my God.” Psalm 143:10a

Baptists start many new churches and some of us wonder: Do those churches survive? The answer is yes! Most of them do survive and grow.

Today we’re going to Chicago. Many older churches have closed over the years, so new churches are desperately needed.

One new church is Church of the Beloved; our church’s Cooperative Program giving helped start it two years ago. And in 24 months they’ve grown to about 400 members with three worship services.

Now they have started a second church, and the pastor of that church is who we want to pray for today. His name is Daniel Chung. His parents moved to the United States from South Korea, but Daniel grew up in Maryland and Virginia.

Daniel served two years as worship leader and student pastor at Church of the Beloved. Now he leads the new church, Church of the Beloved, Near West, which meets on West Roosevelt Road, not far from Lake Michigan.

Daniel is one of many missionaries our church supports in Chicago through our Cooperative Program giving. Let’s pray that this new church will also grow quickly and share the gospel with thousands.
