DSBC AT WORK THROUGH THE COOPERATIVE PROGRAM: “My heart’s desire and my prayer to God is for their salvation.” Romans 10:1

Western Europe is one of the hardest places in the world to start churches. Europeans often reject Christianity. It usually takes a long time for a European to come to faith in Christ.

Please pray for Michael Harrington, one of our missionaries who serves in Europe. Our church supports him through the Cooperative Program.

Michael said he talked for a long time to a man named Alex, and finally he came to a Bible study. But Alex walked out in the middle of it. Those Christians in that room just could not be for real, he said.

Michael persisted and got Alex into months-long Bible study. Finally, God’s truth began to get through to him. He wrote out hundreds of Bible verses in longhand, so he could remember them. Finally, Alex was baptized.

We’re happy that Alex came to faith in Christ! But how can we reach hundreds, thousands, even Millions? The first thing we need is more missionaries.

Pray for Michael as he teaches, coaches and works with people whose minds are closed—at least at first.
