DSBC AT WORK THROUGH THE COOPERATIVE PROGRAM:

“I appointed you to go and bear fruit that lasts.” John 15:16

Jason Vance felt called to start a new church in Surprise, Arizona, which is in the northwestern part of Greater Phoenix; a place where more than 100 other church planters had tried to start churches and failed—just gave up and left.

Surprise has grown very rapidly. Today more than 120,000 people live there—three times the number there in 2000. So, there’s a big need for churches. But there are only two Southern Baptist churches in town and, besides Jason’s, just one other new church being started.

For now Jason’s church, Valley Life Church, meets in a high school. They must set up chairs and equipment and then tear it down every Sunday.

Despite all this, they are reaching people. A while back they baptized a young woman in her 20s, another young woman in her 30s, and then Mary, who is 72.

We support Jason in this challenging place through our Cooperative Program giving. Please pray he will succeed in planting a healthy, growing church that will be a source of Living Water in that dry land.
