Happy Valentines

Often I hear something akin to – “I wish I knew the will of God for my life...” It is a worthy statement, and reveals both a humble spirit and a desire to live a Christ-honoring life. My answer most often centers around these three verses:

“This is My commandment, that you love one another, just as I have loved you. ¹³ “Greater love has no one than this, that one lay down his life for his friends. ¹⁴ “You are My friends if you do what I command you. (John 15:12–14)

Our Lord leaves little question of His will for each of us in this statement made to His disciples (and to us) on the night before His crucifixion. Love of others is the will of God for your life. All that Jesus taught and all that He did here on earth including His sacrificial death on Calvary illustrated and lived out love in the form of sacrificial servanthood.

As we enter the “love month” of February be reminded of this simple but profound truth, all of God’s will is bound up in the living out of LOVE!

Celebrating love, Preacher Bill

A NOTE

for DSBC YOUTH

Hey Guys,

God has been really speaking to me through music lately. One of my favorite songs growing up was Strong Tower by Kutless. I’m sure some of you know it but for those who don’t here is the chorus:

“You are my strong tower, Fortress when I’m weak
Your name is true and holy, And Your face is all I seek.”

This song comes straight from Proverbs 18:10 “The name of the LORD is a strong tower: the righteous run into it, and are safe.”

Right now our country and world have a lot of uncertainty, doubt, anger, fear or any mix of those emotions. Remember each of us need refuge from this world, or even ourselves sometimes and there is no better place than in our Father’s arms!
