Growing-up Pains

Did you ever have the experience of leg aches when you were a youngster? I don't mean the kind that come from overexertion when you've played hard all-day long. I'm referring to "growing pains." Some may not have had that experience, but it seems most do. You haven't done anything wrong, you just hurt because you're growing.

I've experienced a similar discomfort on the Spiritual side of life as well, how about you? It occurs when I'm stretched by circumstances that seem to be unfair and unwanted. My "Christ character" is challenged. I am forced to be patient beyond my human resources or forgiving, over and above what seems just. It occurs when my less mature aspects of the "fruit of the Spirit" are put to the test, as if Father God is squeezing to test their ripeness.

Leg aches can keep you awake in the night as a child, and sometimes Spiritual aches can rob us of our Joy. The remedy: Focus on the positive result, growth. "...we are to grow up in all aspects into Him who is the head, even Christ." (Ephesians 4:15)

Dear Church Family,

Thank you all for your prayers and concern for my son Shane. After almost 6 months we have finally got answers to one of his health problems. He has been diagnosed with Benign Intracranial Hypertension. In short he has extra fluid on his brain. This mimics a brain tumor. He has had severe migraines daily and other problems with this. We are trying a medication now that is increased in dosage every week until it is corrected. Prayers that this will work with medication only. We will be going to Wake Forest May 8th to see another specialist. Please continue to keep Shane and our entire family in your prayers.

Thank You,
Deedee W. Canipe

DOUBLE SPRINGS BAPTIST CHURCH

Jan Harrison

Join us for an uplifting message by a woman who has encountered life-changing storms. Inspirational mom Jan Harrison wrote about the dark hours of a physical storm and a spiritual one in her first book, "Life After the Storm." Her second book, "Being a Woman Who Knows God by Name," examines the issue of trust when we feel that life has not turned out as we thought it would.
